

Part A — Parse Tree 1 of 5

PP1 ('about the woman'), PP2 ('with the umbrella'), and PP3 ('on the street') all attach to 'a joke'

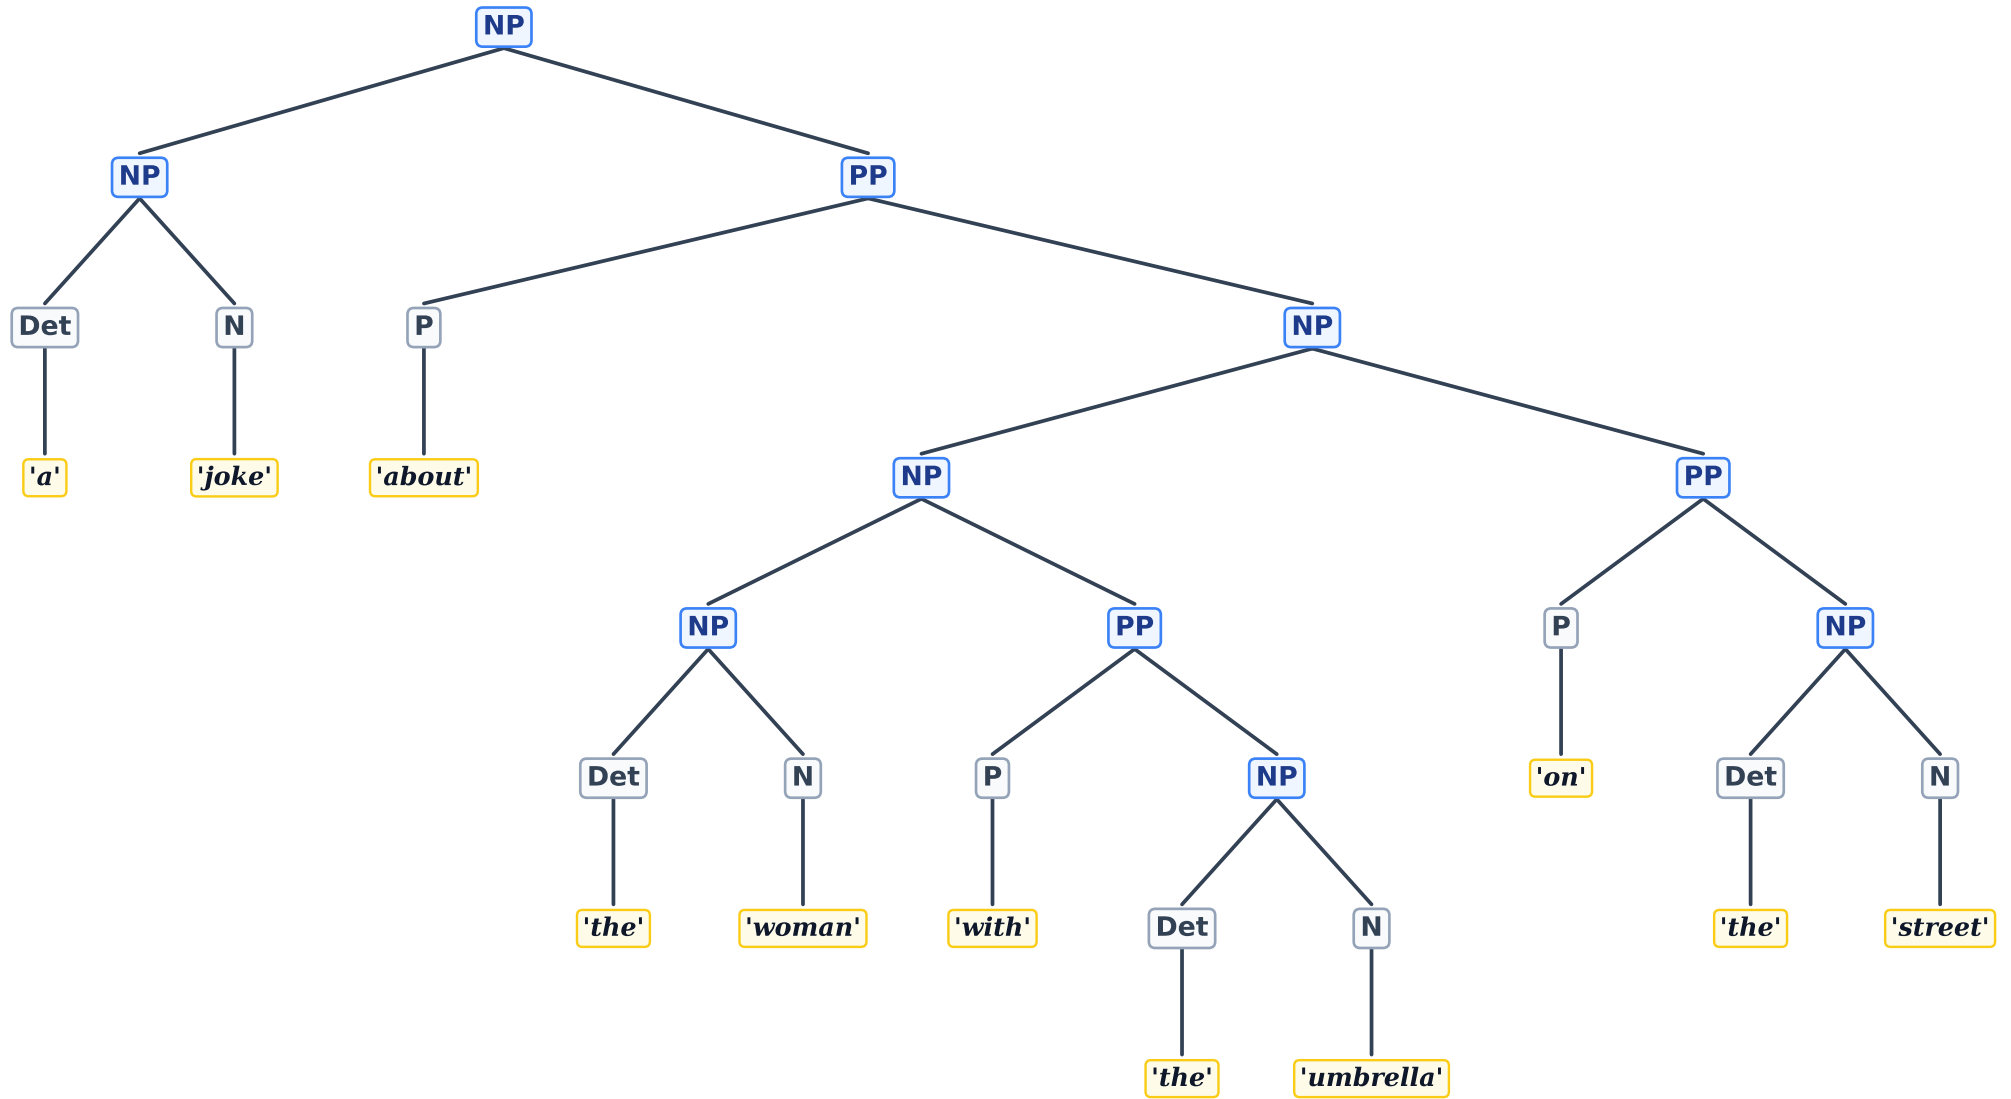

Part A — Parse Tree 2 of 5

PP2 ('with the umbrella') attaches to 'the woman'; PP3 ('on the street') attaches to 'a joke...'

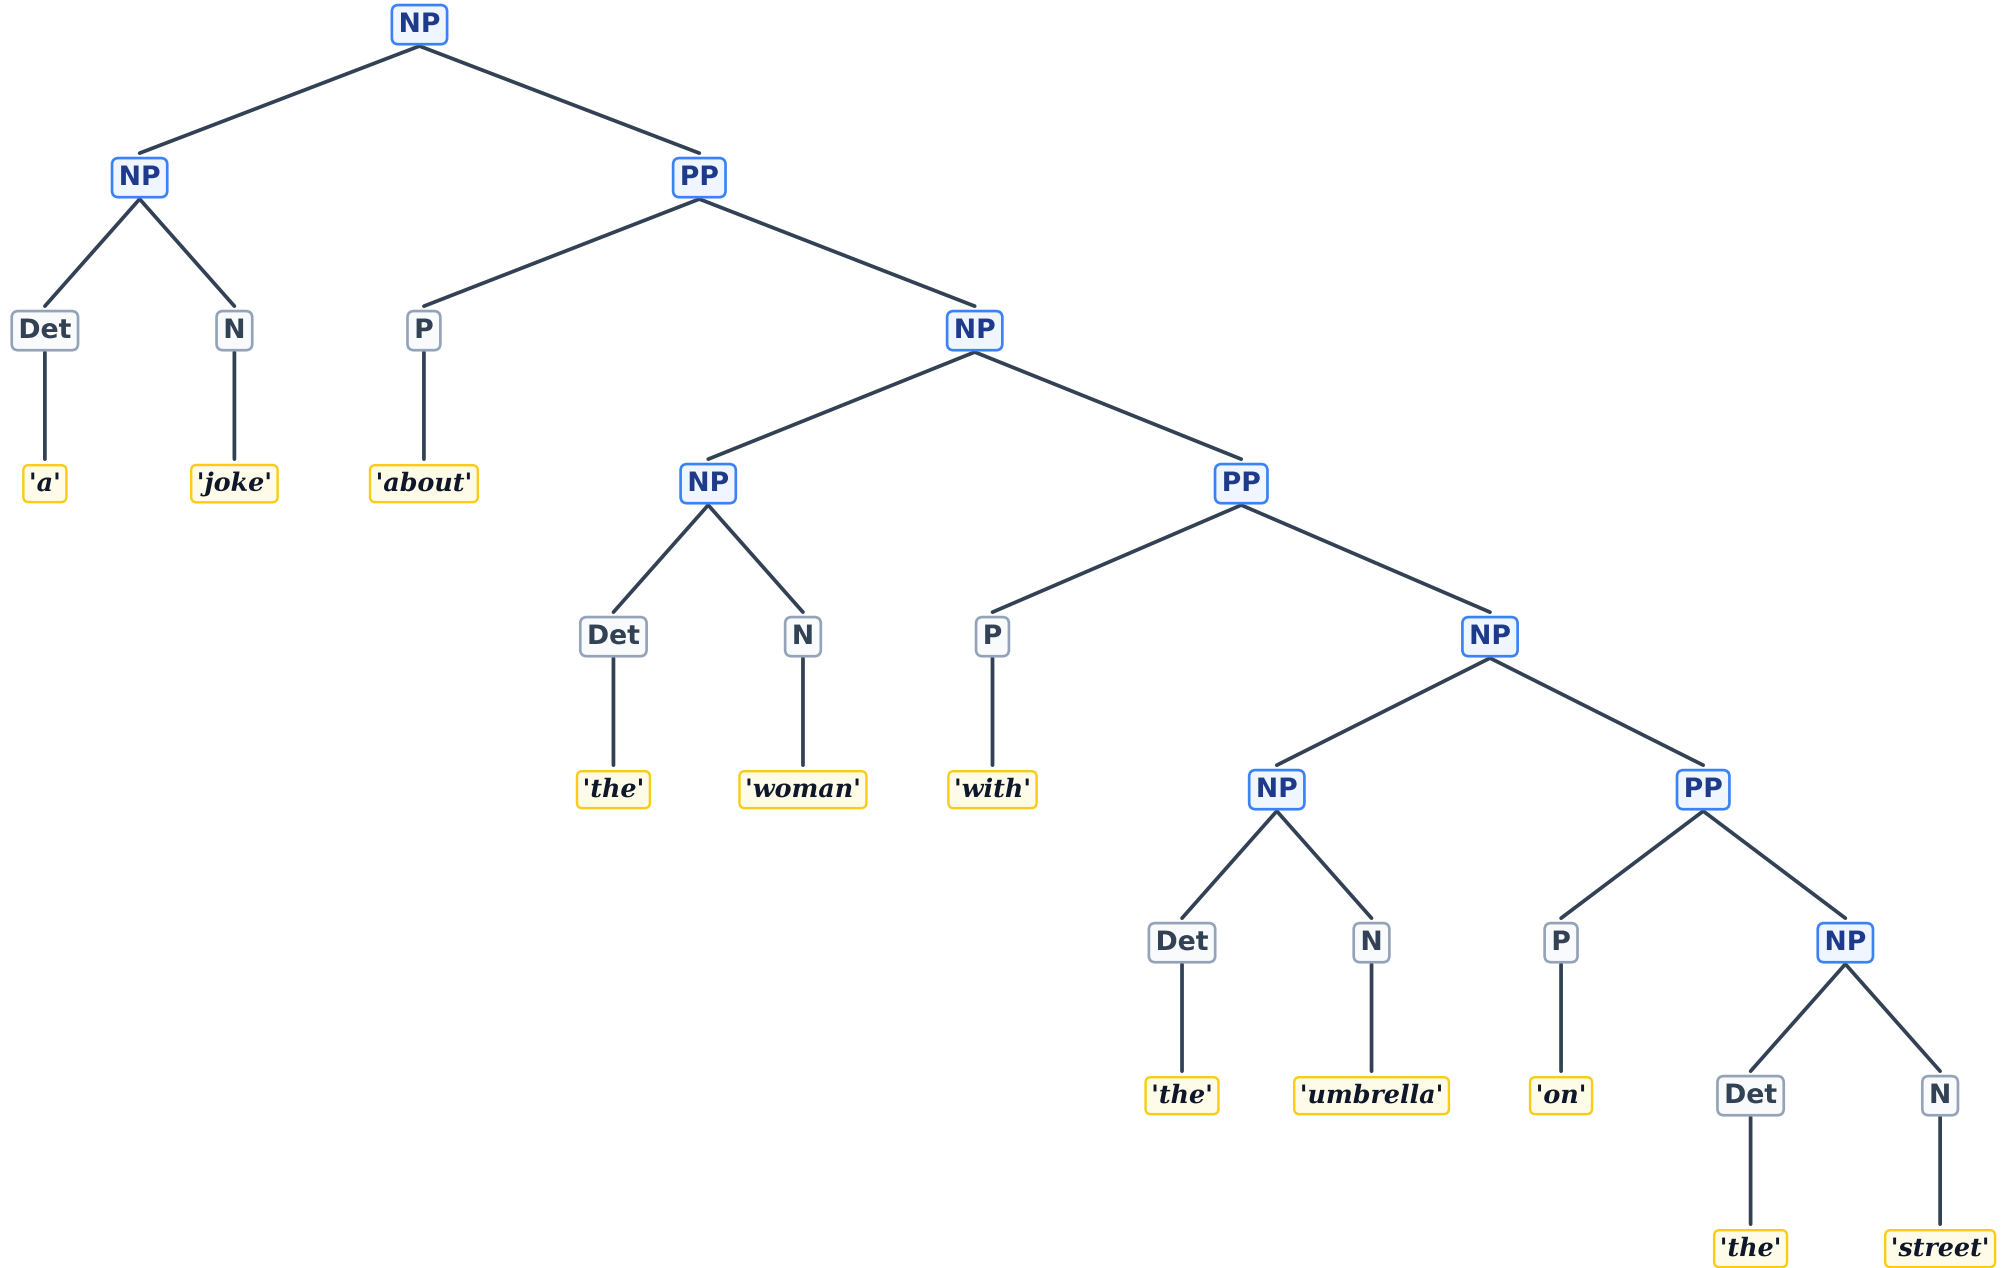

Part A — Parse Tree 3 of 5

PP2 ('with the umbrella') and PP3 ('on the street') both attach to 'the woman'

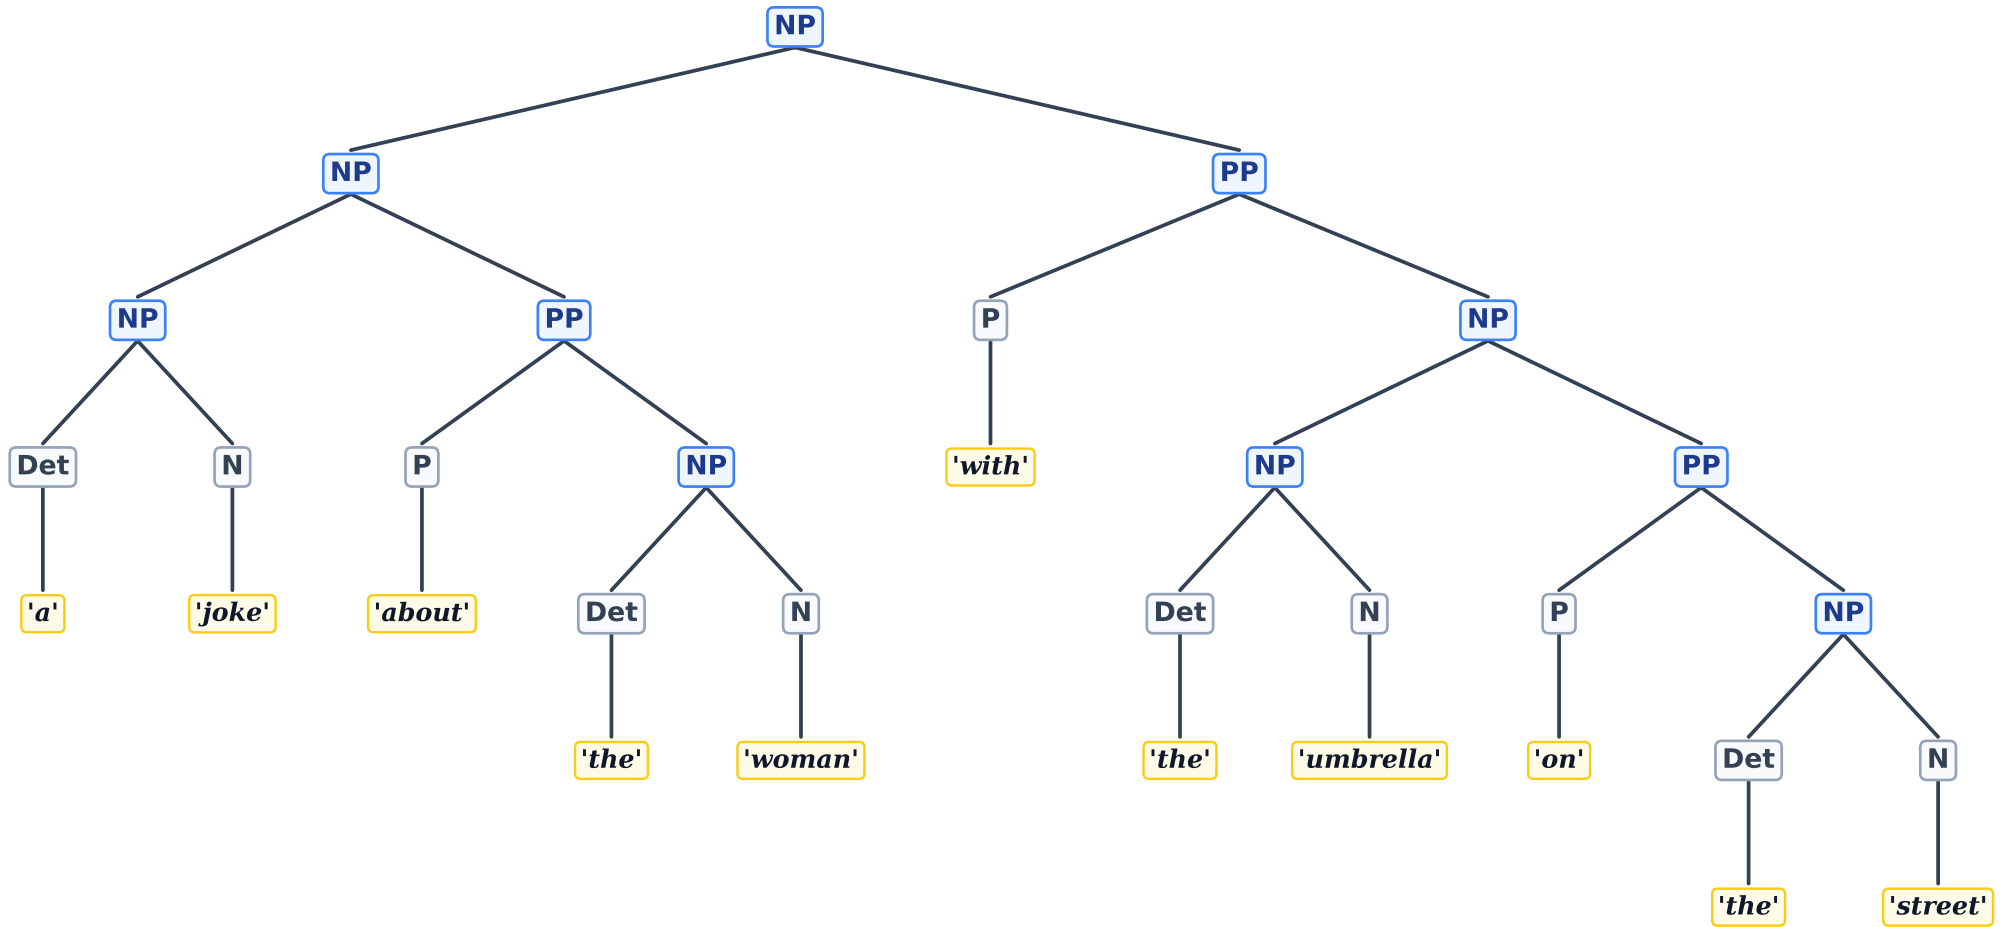

Part A — Parse Tree 4 of 5

PP3 ('on the street') attaches to 'the umbrella', which attaches to 'the woman', which attaches to 'a joke'

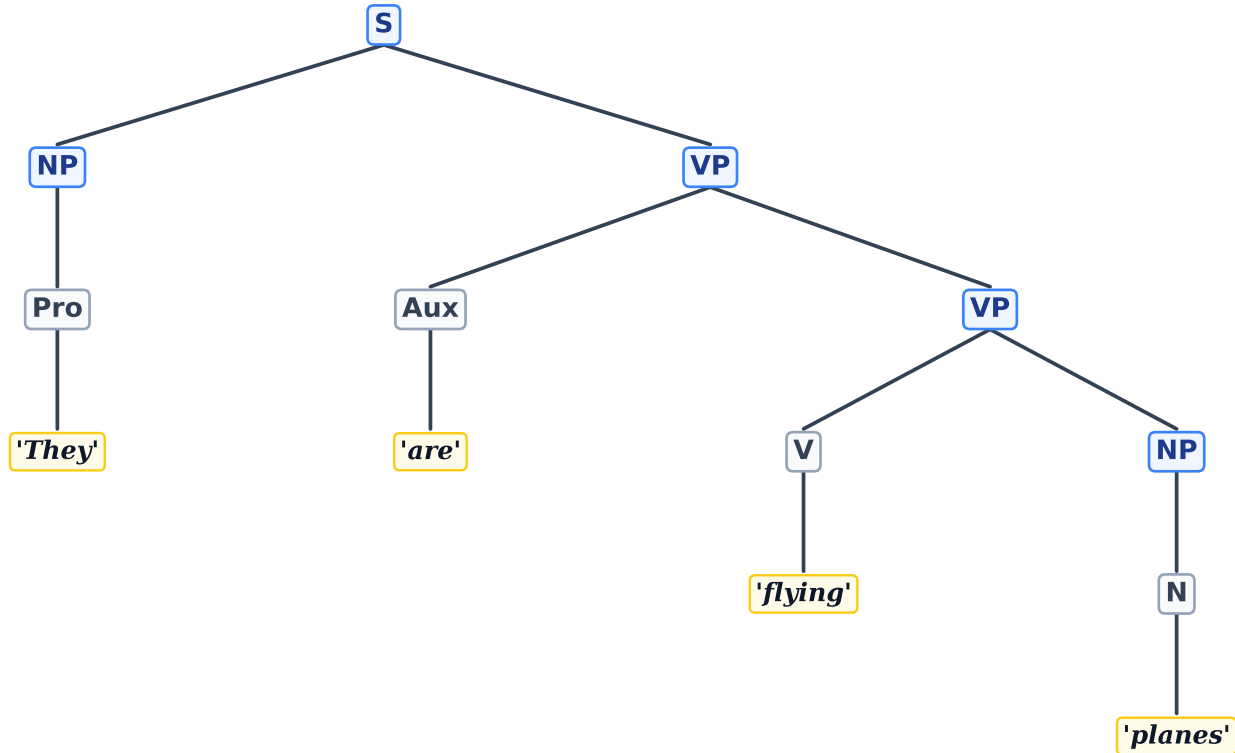

Part A — Parse Tree 5 of 5

PP1 ('about the woman') attaches to 'a joke'; PP3 ('on the street') attaches to 'the umbrella', which attaches to 'a joke...'

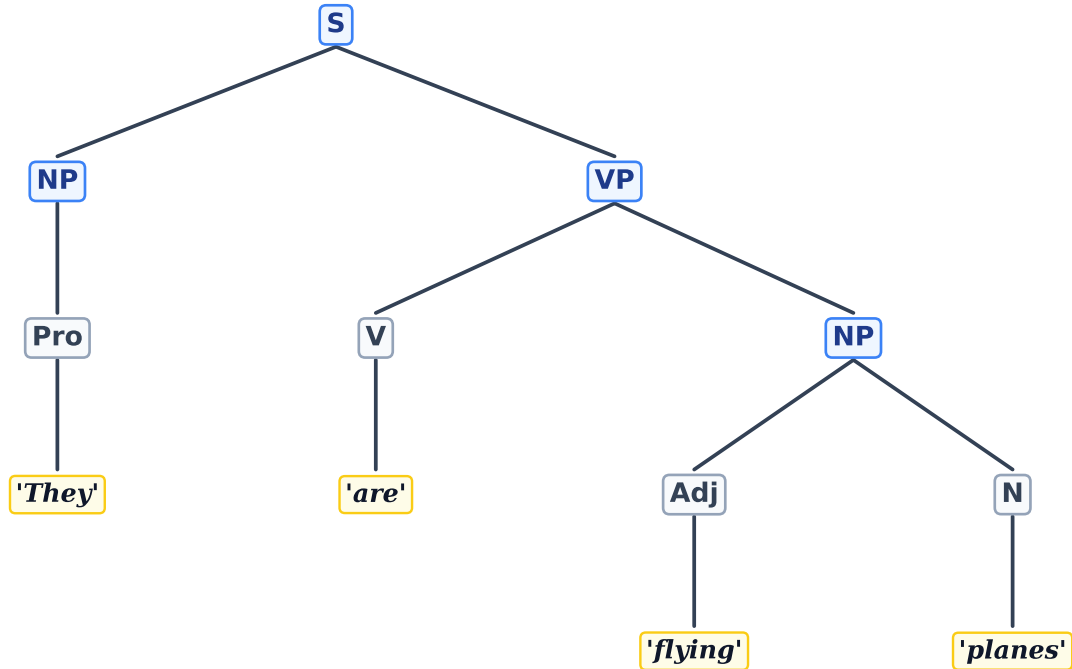

Part B — Parse Tree 1 ('They are flying planes')

Reading 1 (Progressive Action): 'are' is an Auxiliary + [VP [V flying] [NP planes]] ('They are piloting planes')

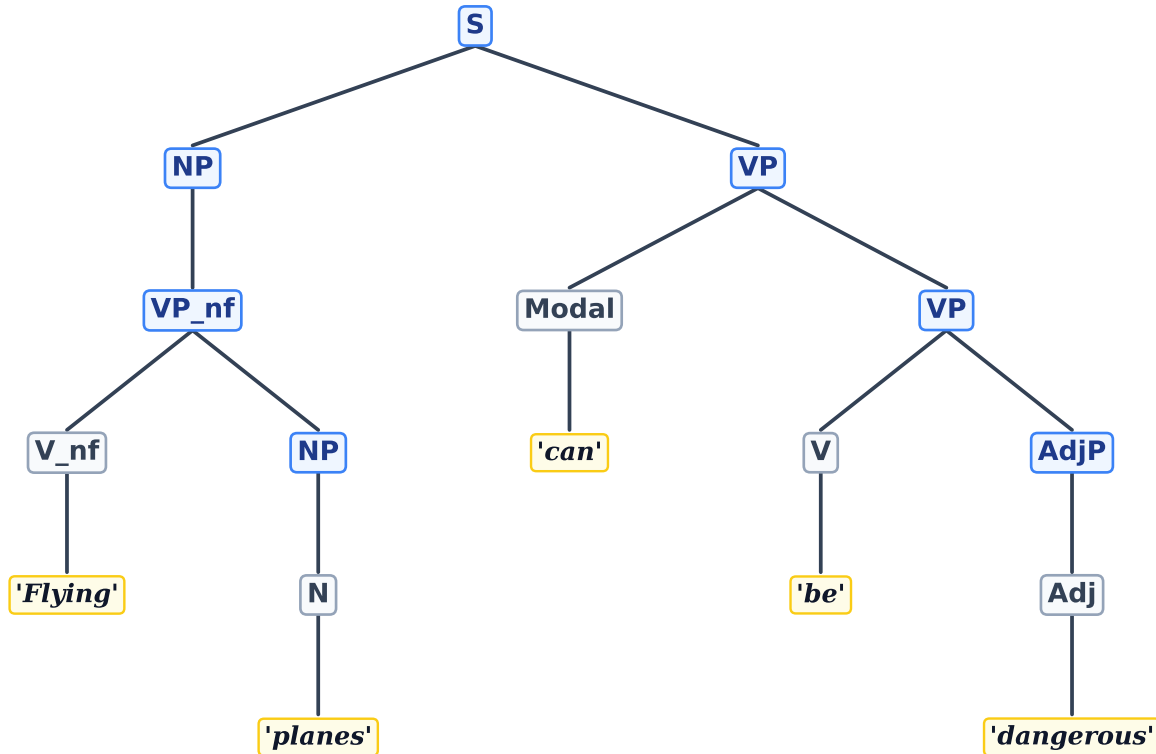

Part B — Parse Tree 2 ('They are flying planes')

Reading 2 (Copular Description): 'are' is a main/copular Verb + [NP [Adj flying] [N planes]] ('Those objects are planes that fly')

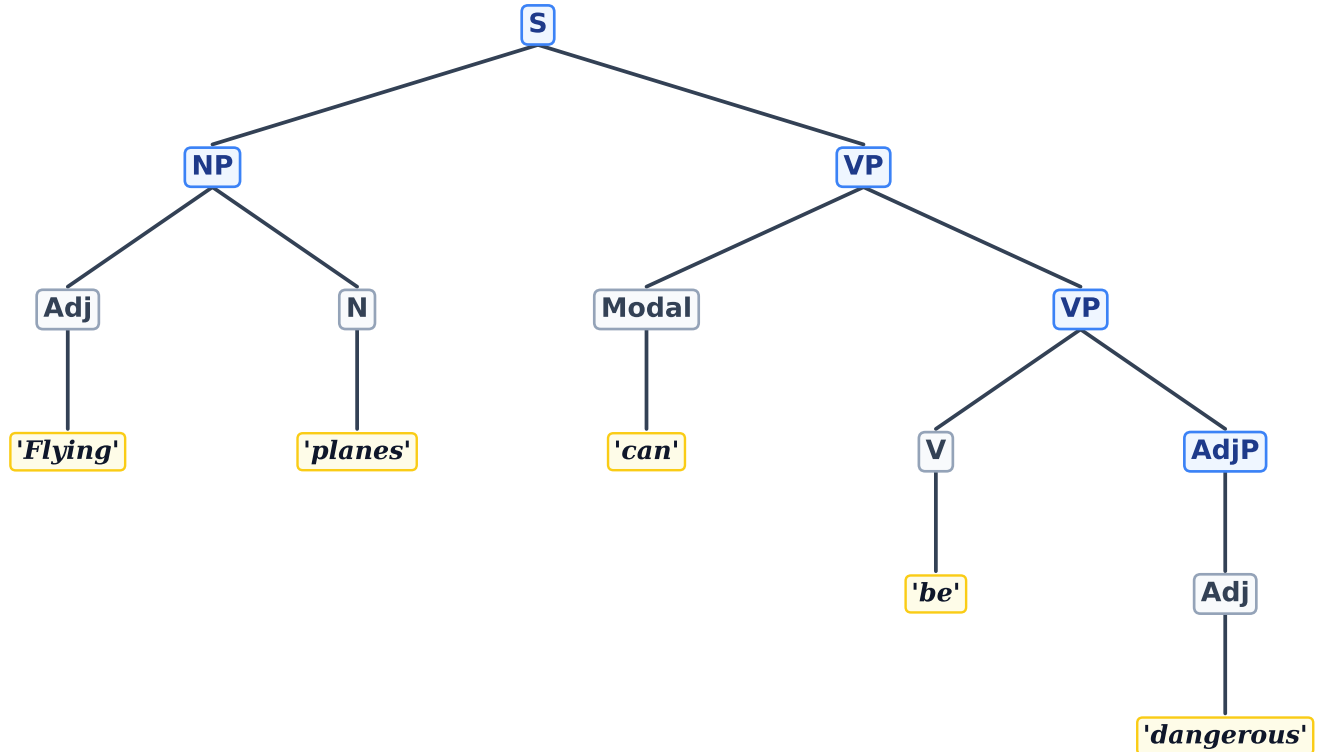

Part C — Parse Tree 1 ('Flying planes can be dangerous')

Reading 1 (Gerundive / Non-Finite VP Subject): [NP [VP_nf [V_nf Flying] [NP planes]]] ('The act of flying planes can be dangerous')

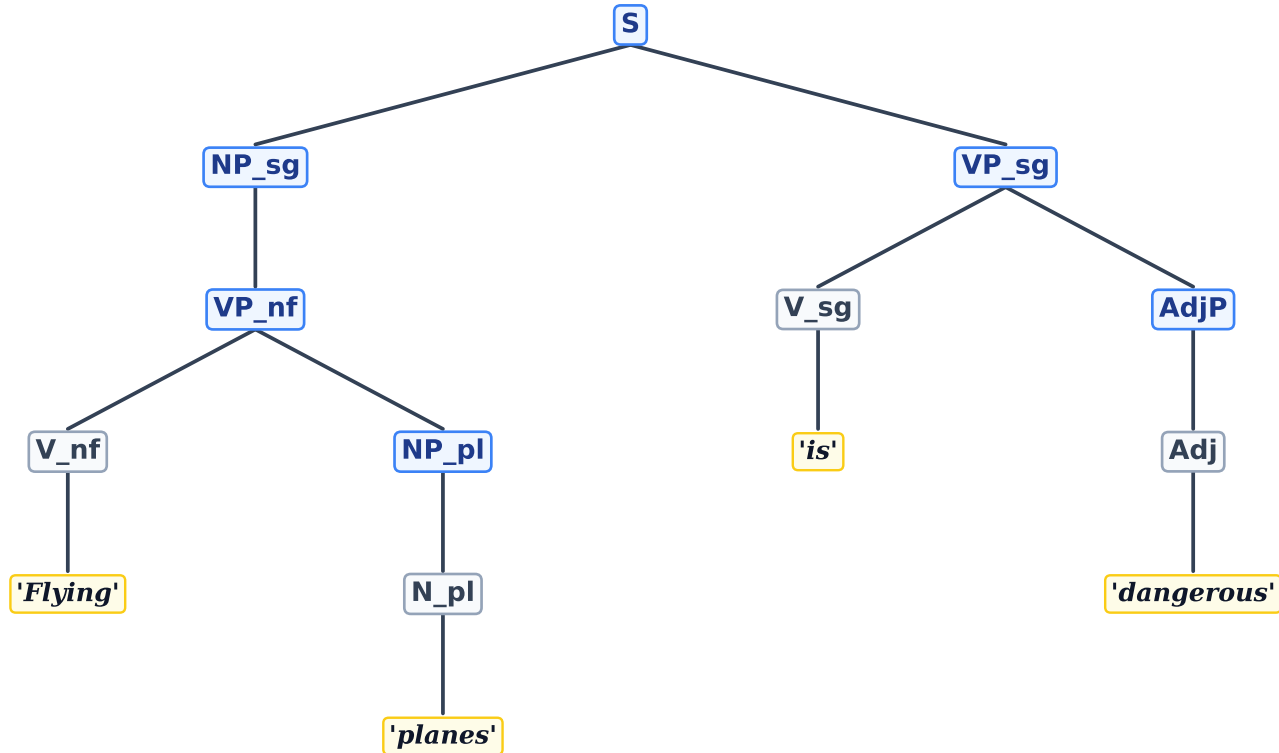

Part C — Parse Tree 2 ('Flying planes can be dangerous')

Reading 2 (Modified Noun Phrase Subject): [NP [Adj Flying] [N planes]] ('Planes that are flying can be dangerous')

Part D — 'Flying planes is dangerous' (Disambiguated: Singular Non-Finite VP Subject)

Only 1 Parse: 'is' (V_sg) agrees solely with singular NP_sg -> VP_nf ('The act of flying planes is dangerous')

Part D — 'Flying planes are dangerous' (Disambiguated: Plural Modified NP Subject)

Only 1 Parse: 'are' (V_pl) agrees solely with plural NP_pl -> Adj N_pl ('Planes that fly are dangerous')

